The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday July 21. to Thursday July 24. 1707.

Windsor, July 22.

THE humble Addreſs of the Lord Mayor, and the reſt of Her Majeſty's Commiſſioners of Lieutenancy, for the City of London, has been preſented to Her Majeſty.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE humbly beg Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, That it is not without the moſt unſpeakable Joy and Satisfaction that we find more frequent Occaſions given in Your moſt auſpicious Reign for the Acknowledgments and Gratulations of Your People, than ever were given for Petitions for redreſſing of Grievances, or than were ever taken by the People, when they had the greateſt Diſpoſition to complain.

There has ſcarce been a Campaign ſince Your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne that has not afforded us freſh Matter of Praiſe to Almighty God, for giving Your Majeſty a moſt compleat Victory over Your Enemies; and at the ſame time the true Wiſdom and Goodneſs to make no other Uſe of it, than to become a moſt Illuſtrious Example of thoſe Princely Virtues, that are render'd ſo very difficult by an uninterrupted Series of Succeſs.

Your Majeſty's Triumphs have indeed far exceeded thoſe of Your moſt Renowned Predeceſſors: But 'tis Your Majeſty's Moderation that has put them entirely beyond all Competition. Whilſt all the Confederate Princes and States of Europe are acknowledging the Benefits they receive from Your wiſe Adminiſtration, and are making their Applications to You for Your Powerful Protection and Aſſiſtance, Your Majeſty don't allow Your Self to forget the meaneſt, the remoteſt, or the moſt unfortunate of Your People, nor the Oppreſs'd in any Part of the World.

Your Majeſty is contending againſt Bigotry and Faction at Home with the ſame Zeal and Intenſeneſs that You are diſputing the Liberties of Europe with an overgrown Oppreſſor Abroad. We beg Leave upon this Occaſion with all Humility to aſſure Your Majeſty, That we want Words to expreſs the Exaltation it has rais'd in us, to ſee Your Majeſty's unwearied Endeavours in this glorious Conteſt crown'd with ſuch amazing Succeſs. Your Majeſty has had the ſingular Felicity to unite Your Two Kingdoms into One Body, and to take the only ſure Method of bringing all Your People to be of One Mind; having in Your great Wiſdom already made it their mutual Intereſt to agree in purſuing thoſe Meaſures that make for the Common Peace and Happineſs, and in bearing with one another in their Differences about thoſe Things, from which, if it be poſſible that any Hurt at all can accrue, yet at leaſt none can to any but themſelves.

And we make no Queſtion, but the ſame Greatneſs of Mind, which has carried Your Majeſty to make ſo juſt an Improvement of all the Advantages that it has pleas'd Almighty God to give You over Your Enemies, will engage Your Majeſty to redouble Your Efforts, where it has ſeem'd good to Divine Providence to give a Check to the Glory of Your Undertakings, till Your Majeſty has put King Charles the Third into the quiet Poſſeſſion of the Throne of Spain.

We beg Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, That we think our ſelves bound upon all theſe Accounts, by all the Ties imaginable, to do every thing on our Parts to facilitate the Execution of all thoſe great Deſigns with which it has pleas'd Almighty God to inſpire Your Royal Mind. We take the Liberty, with all Submiſſion, to promiſe an unfeigned Loyalty to Your Majeſty's Perſon; a moſt chearful Submiſſion to Your Government; a ſincere Love and Affection to all our Fellow Subjects, eſpecially to thoſe with whom Your Majeſty in Your great Goodneſs has been pleas'd to unite us; and a faithful Execution of the great Truſt Your Majeſty has been graciouſly pleas'd to veſt in us, to the Utmoſt of our Power, for thoſe Purpoſes for which Your Majeſty has thought fit to give us this Commiſſion: And, laſt of all, that we will pray without ceaſing for the Continuance of Your Majeſty's Life, that ſo You may long receive the Acknowledgments of a grateful World, and a moſt obedient People; that You may have the Satisfaction to ſee all Diſtinctions aboliſh'd among us, but thoſe which ſhall ariſe from a Conſcientious and Dutiful Regard to Almighty God, and to Your Majeſty, and the Want of ſo happy a Diſpoſition: And that ſo we may ſtill have the Continuance of one of the greateſt Bleſſings Heaven can beſtow; and Your Majeſty may have, very late, receive that Reward which will make up for the vaſt Deficiencies of the beſt Returns that can ever be made to Your Majeſty by the World or Your own People.

To which Addreſs Her Majeſty was pleas'd to make the following moſt Gracious Anſwer:

Gentlemen,

I Thank you for your Addreſs; and I don't queſtion but you will anſwer the Truſt and Confidence I have repoſed in you, for the Safety and Quiet of the City.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum: Preſented to Her Majeſty by Robert Eyre Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, and Recorder of the ſaid City: Introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

YOur Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum, in all humble manner Congratulate Your Sacred Majeſty on the Union of Your Two Kingdoms; being deeply ſenſible of the Juſt and Religious Care Your Majeſty had to the laſting Peace and Happineſs of both Nations, in carrying on ſo great and noble a Deſign.

We beg Leave alſo to take this Occaſion of expreſſing our Gratitude for Your Majeſty's Royal Favour to us, by Your Charter lately granted to compoſe and ſettle the unhappy Differences that had ariſen amongſt us; thereby ſhewing Your ſelf the common and indulgent Mother of all Your loving Subjects.

May Your Majeſty's diſtinguiſhing Example of Love to Your People be the happy Meaſure of their Loyalty to Your Majeſty, and Behaviour to one another. This, Madam, will be the way to make the flouriſhing and united Kingdom of Great Britain worthy of ſuch a Queen.

The following Addreſs has alſo been preſented to Her Majeſty.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town-Clerk, Capital Burgeſſes, Clergy, Gentlemen, and Inhabitants, of Your Majeſty's ancient and loyal Corporation of Stamford in the County of Lincoln.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, do humbly beg Leave to expreſs the Senſe we have of the Happineſs we enjoy under Your Majeſty's Government, and the Method You have taken to continue the ſame to Poſterity, by uniting theſe Your Kingdoms here at Home, and breaking that Power Abroad, which (till Your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne) we had but too juſt Apprehenſions of.

The Wiſdom with which Your Majeſty forms Your great Deſigns, and the anſwerable Succeſs wherewith Providence is pleas'd to bleſs the Juſtice of them, leaves Your Britain (now truly great) no other Wiſh, but that it may long continue under the auſpicious Conduct of that Head which alone could make it One Body: Which invaluable Bleſſing is the earneſt and daily Prayers of Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Algiers, June 2. N. S. A Body of our Forces have lately invaded and ſubdued a Colony of the Arabs that were under the Protection of the Spaniards at Oran, and open'd all the Avenues which lead to that Place. The Dey hath ſince ſent an Army thither to inveſt it, and intends to march himſelf at the Head of another to attack it in Form; by which means we are in Hopes of reducing the greateſt Town the Spaniards are Maſters of on this ſide the Mediterranean. We have Advice, That the Emperor of Fez hath order'd Alcaid Umhamet Ben Heddou Governor of Larach, and Alcaſſer Elquibier, to march with an Army of 4000 Men in order to reinforce the Troops that lie before Ceuta, and puſh the Attacks on that Place with all poſſible Vigour. It is hop'd the Siege will ſucceed better in the Hands of the preſent Alcaid, who is young, and of an active Temper, than it did under the Conduct of his Predeceſſor. We hear, that the Emperor hath fined his Admiral Ben Aiſha to the Value of 11000 Ducats, for having taken Two Britiſh Veſſels, contrary to the Treaty with that Nation; and hath deliver'd him into the Cuſtody of the Alcaid of Tangier till he hath paid his Fine, and adjuſted that Affair with the Miniſter of the Queen of Great Britain.

Leghorne, July 4. Yeſterday a Courier paſſed by Piſa in his way to Milan, who left the Imperial Army Four Days ſince at St. Germano, Six Poſts from the City of Naples, whither they were marching without Oppoſition. The Maſter of a Felucca that came hither in Seven Days from Meſſina ſays, That Four Britiſh Men of War were cruizing in the Gulph of Naples, where they had taken Four Barks, one that was laden with Corn, another a Tranſport-ſhip full of Soldiers, a third which brought the

Coaches